EXPERIENCE

Ferrovial/Fluencycorp

English Language Consultant

2014 to
2020

For the past many years, I've met with Spanish executives in their offices to deliver very-high-level ESP and general ESL lessons, as well as to offer consultation regarding outgoing communications involved in a very large state infrastructure project.

Georgetown University/U.S. Department of State

English Language Fellow

at Pamantasan Ng Lungsod Ng Maynila (PLM)

(University of the City of Manila)

2012 to
2013

In a 10-month fellowship teaching at the premier public university of the Philippines. I taught standard university courses in English as well as faculty workshops, student seminars, and staff development courses.

The principal focus of my fellowship was the Differentiated Instruction Program (DIP), wherein students identified as having persistent problems with English were offered an intensive auxiliary program based on rigorous quantitative research into the specific needs of PLM.

Grayson College

Director of the Intensive English Program

2010 to
2012

At Grayson College I was the founding director of an Intensive English Program servicing primarily west-African francophone students. I was responsible for the program budget, hiring, curriculum design, assessment, and teaching.

Students enrolled in the IEP for one semester had an average gain of about 80 TOEFL points.

2008 to 2010	Grayson College Adjunct Professor, Adult Ed. ESL Instructor At Grayson College I previously worked as an adjunct professor of English as a Second Language, and taught grant-funded free-to-the-public courses in ESL.
	Mark Roberts Group L.L.C., O<sup>2</sup>DA, PGC Edutainment, and others. Project Leader, Lead Editor, Instructional Designer, Writer
2008 to 2009	Working as a freelance developer of educational materials, I've designed courses and written textbooks for several public and private organizations, including the US Department of Housing and Urban Development, and Korean educational publishers Daekyo and Nexus. My work in this sector has frequently involved intercultural communications skills and team leadership responsibilities.
2007 to 2008	Universidad Autónoma de Guadalajara, International Language Center ESL Instructor Working for UAG I developed courses in English with various topics and focuses, including legal English, English for business applications, and ecclesiastical English, and I taught them to varied groups and individuals.
2008	University of Texas at San Antonio Specialist – ESL/GED Instructor At UTSA I taught English and general education courses to UTSA staff. Duties included lecturing in English and Spanish, and producing monthly reports detailing classroom activities.
	Global-LT ESL Instructor
2008	Working for Global-LT, I taught private intensive lessons in English as a Second Language. Courses focused on speaking and listening, with particular attention to pronunciation and understanding conversational English. Other duties involved course design and delivery, and timely delivery of paperwork.
	Northwest Vista College Adjunct Professor of ESL
2007	At Northwest Vista I taught two college level courses for students of various nationalities. Courses concentrated on reading, listening, and speaking. My duties involved instructional design, teaching, record keeping, and coordinating with other department faculty and staff.
